Dear Parents and Carers

Year 6 Trip to Manchester Climbing Centre

Year 6's end of year treat trip will be a visit to Manchester Climbing Centre, where the children will be given an opportunity to learn the basics of indoor climbing and have a go for themselves. The visit is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the children's achievements this year.

Manchester Climbing Centre is staffed by highly experienced climbers who will tutor the children and guide them through their climbs. Any children who are apprehensive about climbing or heights, will be able to complete climbs on a smaller climbing wall. The day of each class visit is as follows:

6MM: 11th June 2018
6JP: 12th June 2018
6LV: 14th June 2018

Parents and carers are being asked for a voluntary contribution of £9.51 towards the trip. Without sufficient voluntary contributions, the trip will not be able to go ahead.

Breakdown of cost

Cost of the return tram ticket:	£1.00
Cost of activity:	£8.51
Total cost per child:	£9.51

We will be leaving school at approximately 9:15am and return to school for 3:00pm. Please provide your child with a packed lunch, which they should bring in a disposable bag. Drinks should be in cartons or plastic bottles. Any child entitled to a free school meal will receive a packed lunch provided by school.

Please complete and return the consent form below by 1st June 2018. Payment should be made via AGORA, the school's cashless system.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully

M Murray
